

SABHY CERTIFICATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Certification Standards and Requirements
- The Sabhy certification body will assess the compliance of the applicant's product/service with the Sabhy standards and requirements.
- The Sabhy certification body reserves the right to inspect the applicant's facilities and processes to ensure compliance with Sabhy standards.
- The Sabhy certification body will issue the Sabhy certificate upon successful completion of the assessment and inspection.
- Certification Duration and Renewal
- The Sabhy certificate is valid for one year from the date of issuance.
- The certificate can be renewed upon submission of a renewal application and successful assessment by the Sabhy certification body.
- The Sabhy certification body reserves the right to revoke the certificate if the applicant fails to comply with Sabhy standards or provides false or misleading information.
- Fees
- The applicant shall pay the
- The Sabhy certification body will keep all information related to the applicant confidential and will not disclose it to any third party without the applicant's consent.
- Liability
- The Sabhy certification body shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising from the certification process, including but not limited to loss of profits, business interruption, or consequential damages.
- Governing Law and Jurisdiction
- This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Sabhy certification.
- Any disputes arising from or related to this agreement shall be resolved through arbitration in accordance with the rules of the arbitration body selected by the Sabhy certification body.
- I hope this helps! Please note that these are just sample terms and conditions and should be reviewed and modified by your Sabhy certification body as needed to suit their specific requirements and standards.